Gospel for kidz

Today we are going to be talking about
Jesus talked about his mission.
Let's, listen and hear the story Jesus tells his followers.

The night before Jesus died on the cross, He met with His disciples for a special meal.

He knew that it was the last time He would get to have dinner with them before His suffering, and there were some important things that He did and said while they were gathered together.

Jesus wanted them to know how much He loved them, and He commanded them to love others. He washed their feet to show that He was a servant and expected them to serve one another.

During the meal, Jesus took bread to share with those at the table. When He broke the bread, He told the disciples

“this is my body, broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

And He passed around the wine and said

“this is my blood, poured out for you.”

The disciples may not have understood it, but Jesus was telling them that He was doing something new and amazing. Before Jesus, people of God were required to make animal sacrifices for their sins. Jesus was communicating that His blood was going to cover sin once and for all. And as He passed around the bread and wine, He told His friends to remember Him and what He did.

He gave up His life so that we could live with Him.

He covered our sins with His blood.

Let's sit quietly now and think of God's story.
